With the understanding that we are connected under one universal energy, Reiki is the practice of using one's vessel as a conduit to channel positive-intentioned spiritual energy into your body at specific acupressure points through nourishing healing hands.

Focusing on 12 Major & Minor Chakra or Energy centers that represent both the emotional & physical body, through the use of Reiki & telepathic practices, I seek to open and relieve resistances by channeling positive intentioned energy and renewing prana flow in the body.

Crystals and/or semi-precious stones are placed at all 12 Chakra points interacting with the body's Emotional & Physical energy fields in order to initiate the healing process of emotional and/or physical ailments. Between 17 & 23 Crystals will be placed on or around you during any one session.

A type of therapy that uses the vibration and tuned frequency of two bowls (tuned to the Crown & Root Chakras) along with Chinese Symbols to amplify the Crystals and entrance the etheric body to synchronize with the physical body and increase the Prana or Life Force energy flow; relieving many forms of dis-ease.
